

TAIR DAC Race Code Changes Survey

Has your system office determined (or given guidance) on which BRIDGING methodology (or methodologies) are to be used? (i.e., comparing the multiple response categories to the old, single response categories, for trend comparisons).

Answer Options	Response %	Response #
Yes	14.8%	4
No	48.1%	13

If your institution plans to use a BRIDGING methodology, which bridging methodology are you using (or considering using)? Check as many as apply.

Fractional assignment (person assigned partially to each selected group) based on equal percentages (e.g., white/black response = .5 white and .5 black) (OMB Bridging Methodology)	25.0%	4
Fractional assignment (person assigned partially to each selected group) based on predetermined percentages (e.g., white/black response is assigned proportionally based on published proportions, such as the National Health Interview Survey) (OMB Bridging Methodology)	0.0%	0
Whole assignment (person assigned completely to one category) based on largest group (e.g., if your population is predominately white, white/some other race response would be assigned to white) (OMB Bridging Methodology)	25.0%	4
Whole assignment (person assigned completely to one category) based on largest group other than white (e.g., if your largest groups is white and the second largest group is Asian, all two or more responses containing Asian would be assigned to Asian) (OMB Bridging Methodology)	12.5%	2
Whole assignment (person assigned completely to one category) based on smallest group (e.g., if in your population American Indians are the smallest group, all two or more responses containing American Indian would be assigned to American Indian) (OMB Bridging Methodology)	12.5%	2
Assignment based on a predetermined set of rules (e.g., within two-race categories that include whites or blacks, white and black are dominant in terms of identification and that black identification is dominant in the white/black combination – Texas State Demographer; Broh and Minicucci, Consortium on Financing Higher Education; etc.)	0.0%	0
Will use another methodology	37.5%	6

Although there is a format mandated for reporting data to the federal government, institutions can report data to other entities in other formats. What reporting format(s) does your institution plan to use to present multiple response data? Check as many as apply.

Will use federally mandated format only (two or more races)	75.0%	15
Will present all 64 categories	0.0%	0
Will allow for duplicated headcount, i.e., more than 100% (e.g., number of students identifying themselves as white, number of students identifying themselves as black, etc.)	25.0%	5
Will present proportions adding up to 100% [fractional assignment (person assigned partially to each selected group) based on equal percentages or on predetermined percentages]	10.0%	2
Will present two or more combinations that represent some fraction of the total (e.g., white/black if at least 5%, Hispanic/Asian if at least 2%, etc.)	5.0%	1
Will use another format	10.0%	2
