A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello TAIR Members,

Summer is almost here and time to provide a few updates and reminders for our organization before we take that summer break. It's been several months since we gathered in Corpus Christi for the 2018 conference. The TAIR 2018 conference provided many professional development opportunities as a result of the work performed by your Program and Executive Committees. Many thanks to Carmen Allen, Gabriela Borcoman, Amanda Clark, Soon Merz Flynn, Kara Larkan-Skinner, Rick Leyva, Lillian Marshall, Daniel O'Hanlon, Jacob Price, Marc Turner, Paul Turcotte, Teri Walker, and Al Walser for the work you did before and during the conference to ensure that TAIR 2018 was a success.

Thanks also go to our sponsor partners without whose support a conference like ours would not be possible: Evisions, Sam Houston State University, Scantron, Austin Community College, Richland College, Zogotech, eLumen, SPOL, Campuslabs, Emsi, CCCSE and RISC. A special thank you to SAS, Tableau, and Equifax for providing workshop opportunities and breaks for our members. Together our sponsors contributed $18,925 towards conference expenses which helped lower costs for TAIR members.

Finally, a thank you to all of you who attended this year. Without your participation there would not be a TAIR conference. We had 260 attendees in Corpus Christi. I hope you enjoyed the conference at the beach and learned a new skill, made a new networking contact, or returned to your institution with renewed energy. Please consider expanding your participation next year by sharing your expertise through a workshop or concurrent session at the TAIR 2019 conference.

I hope some of you were able to join Kara Larkan-Skinner and Marc Turner in Orlando last month. They hosted our affiliation meeting at the 2018 AIR Forum. Thank you, Kara and Marc, for providing a networking opportunity for TAIR members.

The next opportunity for TAIR members to connect for professional development will be Friday, July 27 when TAIR will host the annual Summer Workshop at the Highland Campus of Austin Community College. Lea Campbell, our Professional Development Officer, has been busy lining up a great set of workshops that you can read about on page 8.

Over the years I have watched TAIR grow and change to help meet the needs of its members. Input received through conference and workshop evaluations help the Executive and Program Committees improve the professional development opportunities in the short term, but the Executive Committee recognized the need to review TAIR priorities to better serve members moving into the future. Last year, at the request of Kara Larkan-Skinner, the Executive

Team began TAIR's strategic planning process. Paul Turcotte, serving as chair, recruited members to serve on a task force. The task force gathered information from members via an online survey and focus groups at the conference. The group has been busy turning this information into actionable goals and objectives for TAIR. You will be hearing more about TAIR's strategic plan as we move closer to our 2019 conference, and you can read more detail about the work of the task force on page 13.

Preparations are now underway for the 2019 conference to be held at Horseshoe Bay near Marble Falls. The Executive and Program Committees met at the resort in early May and were very impressed by the conference facilities, room accommodations and the resort staff. Vice President/Program Chair Marc Turner and his Program Committee are planning a great conference. Also plan to come early or stay late to enjoy the resort amenities in the Texas Hill Country.

This is a wonderful time to be involved with TAIR! Please feel free to contact me or another member of the TAIR Executive Committee about any concerns or questions you may have, or if you want to get involved by serving on a committee or assisting with TAIR activities. We'd love to hear from you.

Teresa

A WORD FROM YOUR VICE-PRESIDENT AND PROGRAM CHAIR

Marc Turner
VP/Program Chair

I am excited to announce the upcoming TAIR 2019 Annual Conference will be held at Horseshoe Bay Resort located in Horseshoe Bay, Texas on February 25th through the 28th next year. Located on the shore of Lake LBJ a few miles west of Austin, Horseshoe Bay Resort is a premier lake and golf destination providing a wide variety of family friendly amenities. This would be a great location to take your family for a get-away either before or after the conference to enjoy the full range of facilities, including a day spa, tennis courts, three award-winning golf courses, bass fishing, marina, a "Birds of the Bay" show, and more! We want to extend a special "Thank You" to Soon Flynn and Daniel O'Hanlon for their work in locating and securing this wonderful venue for us!

To go along with the beautiful hill country setting, our conference theme this year is "The Hills are alive with the Sound of Data!" Congratulations to Thomas Van Hook (North Central Texas College) and Jason Simon (University of North Texas) who both submitted this idea. The contest for a brochure cover design is currently underway, so be sure to send in your designs by August 1st, if you haven't already.

Since early May, the Program Committee has been hard at work coming up with new and innovative ideas to make this the best TAIR conference ever. This includes changes to the typical TAIR schedule and format compared to the past few years. An overview of the schedule will be available on the TAIR website within the next few weeks, but I do want to go ahead and share some of those changes with you.

The first change you will notice is that the conference will be Monday – Thursday, which is something several members have been asking for over the past few years. Monday will consist of pre-conference workshops, which will then continue on Tuesday morning. The conference itself will begin with our first general session and keynote speaker at 1 PM on Tuesday, which is a couple of hours later than usual. We are building in the later start to give people additional time to arrive since the resort is a few miles outside of Austin. And since we will not be including lunch on the first day this year due to the later start, we will feed you dinner instead! That's right, in place of the Meet, Munch, and Mingle we will have a Welcome Dinner for all attendees. This will provide a great opportunity for you to meet new TAIR members and network with your colleagues from past conferences as you share your experiences from concurrent sessions earlier in the day. On Wednesday, you will notice that we are now including the business meeting along with the Awards Luncheon. All TAIR members are encouraged to participate in the Annual Business Meeting, so we decided that bribing you with food was a good way to get you there. The TAIR Special Event on Wednesday evening will allow you to wind down and relax after a long day of conference sessions. Finally, on Thursday, after an opportunity for breakfast and last minute sessions, we will conclude the conference with our closing general session and keynote speaker.

In addition to the schedule changes, we have also reorganized the tracks and session formats for the conference. The changes in tracks helps bring things more in line with the "Duties and Functions of Institutional Research" prepared by the Association for Institutional Research at the national level, and the changes in session formats provide new ways for members to contribute and present at the conference. Be sure to check out the Call for Participation later in the newsletter for more information.

I hope everyone has a wonderful summer and look forward to seeing you in at TAIR 2019 in February!

Marc

TAIR 2018 CONFERENCE EVALUATION

The TAIR 2018 conference evaluation was conducted through a Survey Monkey survey distributed via an email link and the conference app. The majority of the attendees who responded to the evaluation (91%) were from public institutions, while 9% were from private institutions. Most of the attendees were from four-year universities (52%), followed by the community/technical colleges sector (42%). Approximately 29% of the attendees indicated that they had been working in IR or a related area three to five years, followed by 21% of the attendees who had worked in IR for six to nine years. Approximately 31% of the attendees reported working in IR or a related field ten years or more.

Overall, 81% of the respondents were satisfied or very satisfied with the quality of the TAIR 2018 conference.

Attendees were satisfied or very satisfied with the following aspects of the conference:

Onsite Registration - 93%, Hotel Staff Services and Friendliness - 92%, Number of Breaks Provided - 91%

Online Registration - 90%, Website Information - 88%, and the Conference Week Schedule - 86%.

Areas where respondents expressed lower levels of satisfaction were related to the following: Annual TAIR Conference Dates (mid-February) - 60%, Quality of Hotel Restaurant Food & Service - 63%, Variety of Refreshments at Breaks - 65%, General Session and Networking Lunch menus - 66%, Quality of Hotel Rooms - 69%, and the Quality of Social and Networking Events - 70%. TAIR conference sites are selected several years in advance, so the feedback from TAIR 2018 will be considered for future site planning, and the growth of the organization will be closely monitored to ensure that future sites are adequate for our growing association.

Regarding the concurrent sessions, 86% of the respondents felt that “the spectrum of topics was very broad,” 93% agreed that “the length of the sessions was sufficient,” and 94% agreed that the “session timing fit my schedule.” Eighty-nine percent (89%) of the attendees felt that “the workshops are a good value for the cost” and 63% preferred pre-conference workshops while 23% didn’t have a preference between a pre- or post- workshop. Most of the responses for the questions regarding the community round table sessions were “not applicable.” The Executive Committee will review the purpose of the round table sessions at future conferences.

Regarding sponsors, 92% agreed that “sponsor services/products were appropriate for my field,” 92% agreed that there “was plenty of time to visit the sponsors,” and 83% thought that the overall quality of the Sponsor Fair was excellent. Given the importance of sponsors to our conference and our profession, the Executive Committee will continue to explore sponsor-related issues to ensure we are meeting member needs.

Thank you to all who completed the survey. Your responses are appreciated. Your input will be used to inform future conference decisions.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Paul Turcotte
Treasurer

The Executive Committee continued the tradition of improving the Association's financial position during fiscal year 2017 (April 2017 through March 2018) increasing reserves by $13,656 from $72,015 to $85,371 or 18 percent. The committee adopted financial policies and procedures, including an investment policy, which are published on the Association's website in the Officer's Guide (http://www.texas-air.org/assets/pdf/TAIR\_Officers\_Guide\_2018.pdf).

The TAIR Bylaws (Section 6d) require the Association's President to appoint a Financial Review Committee each year charged with auditing the Treasurer's books no later than 60 days following the fiscal year's end on March 31st. In auditing the Association's finances, the Financial Review Committee shall reconcile the Association's financial records with bank account(s), ensure that all financial transactions were consistent with Association's purpose, policy and procedure, assess the Association's financial condition and make recommendations that address any problems or that would result in improvements in the management or use of the Association's financial resources. The chair of the Financial Review Committee shall report the Committee's findings at the next annual business meeting.

President Teresa Isbell appointed Tracy Stegmair to chair the review committee, which consists of Kate Proff and Jessica Smith. These members generously volunteered their time for a second consecutive year. The committee met on May 16, 2018, to complete their review and determined the Treasurer's books were in order. The committee issued no recommendations in their preliminary report. An official report will be presented at the business meeting during TAIR 2019.

The Executive Committee proposed and membership approved a change to the Bylaws at the business meeting on February 13, 2018. The change shifted the timing of the financial review. Previously the review was conducted weeks before the conference and nearly a year after the fiscal year's end. The revised timing of the review allows the Financial Review Committee to complete their review immediately following the fiscal year and before the Association is required to file its IRS Form 990 in August each year. The form for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018, was filed in May and can be found on the Association's website on the Financial Report page (<http://texas-air.org/index.php/member-resources/financial-reports/>).

An earlier review was made possible with the conversion to all digital financial records allowing for the review to be conducted at a distance. The time to complete the review was reduced with the introduction of a streamlined accounting process and a standardized chart of accounts. These improvements are the result of a series of dedicated treasurers working diligently to ensure the Association's finances are in good order.

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER UPDATE

Hello everyone and I hope this update finds you well!

As you might know, Todd Moon was TAIR's web developer for the past few years and did an excellent job keeping the website updated along with general server administration stuff. I have since been doing this but would like to give someone the opportunity to serve TAIR in this capacity. If you, or someone you know, would like to contribute to the organization in this way, please send me an email (communications@texas-air.org) and I can go over the details. It typically requires a few hours a month and a few more during the month before and after the conference. Extensive web/server administration and HTML knowledge is not required but is a plus.

Secondly, our event registration system, RegOnline, was acquired by Cvent in 2016 and the Executive Committee would like to see if this and our mobile app solution are still satisfying the organization's needs. I would like to form a small ad-hoc committee to look into our current solutions and compare them against a few other solutions that are on the market. If you have experience with these types of systems, please send me an email (communications@texas-air.org) so that we can discuss this in the next few weeks.

A NOTE FROM THE STRATEGIC PLANNING TASK FORCE

Paul Turcotte
Task Force Chair

During her TAIR presidency, Kara Larkan-Skinner charged the TAIR Strategic Planning Task Force with drafting a strategic plan to move TAIR forward and guide future Executive Committees in providing value to members.

She instructed the task force to review the mission of TAIR and update it as necessary, perform relevant environmental scanning, and solicit input from the membership in drafting a vision, goals, and strategies to guide the Association and to draft a five-year strategic plan for TAIR for membership comment at the 2019 Conference Business Meeting and consideration by the Executive Committee. The plan will be final upon the Executive Committee's approval. The Task Force began its work by planning an internal scan of membership in assessing the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats to the association. The group collected information on the members' needs, concerns, and ideas for improving TAIR. The group conducted a scan the strategic plans of other state, regional, and national associations of institutional research. Members were invited to attend forums at the conference to discuss issues facing TAIR, institutional researchers, and institutional research and ways TAIR can improve. Involvement in the planning efforts has been great. Members responses to the surveys were meaningful and provided the Task Force insight to form goals and consider various strategies.

The Task Force continues its work by refining goals and strategies and identifying measures to evaluate the plan. The work is on schedule to complete a draft to present to the Executive Committee at their September 2018 meeting.
